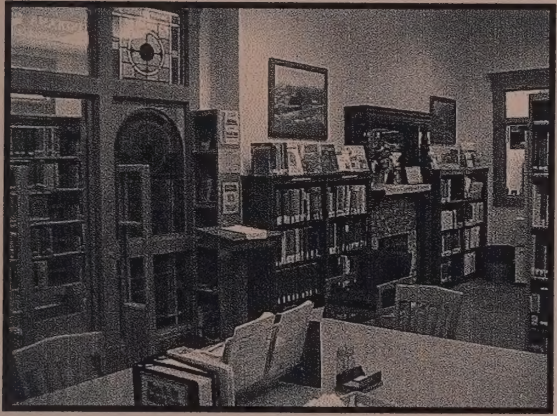
INDIANA ROOM
DANVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY



40TH ANNIVERSARY

The Republican library article in the March 24th issue begins, "A special note to all who are participating in plans for some sesquicentennial event during the coming year will not overlook materials available at the Danville Public Library." Several columns featured new books about Indiana. According to a July article, the summer reading club was The Indiana Sesquicentennial Reading Club. "Many books about Indiana and Indiana people go unnoticed in the library. Maybe some of these books will enlighten you and your Indiana Heritage."

The September library column begins "Since this week is the time when our county celebrates the Indiana Sesquicentennial, make it a point to visit your public library. You will find for your convenience, books by Indiana authors shelved near the front of the room. Many books, both old and new have been helpful to those doing research in their planning for this eventful time." These articles illustrate the great interest in Indiana history shown during the Indiana Sesquicentennial which probably led to the establishment of the Indiana Room.

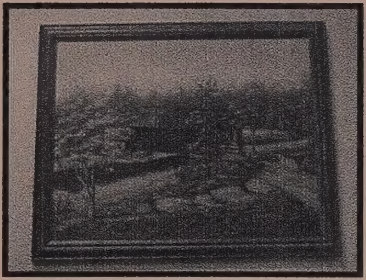
DPL Librarian Miss Ina Shaw hands out awards for the summer reading club.

The Indiana Room would have been through the closed door.

CHANGES THROUGH THE YEARS



The only surviving member of the 1966 library board is Paul Terrill. Still an avid genealogist, Mr. Terrill regularly visits the Indiana Room and often attends our programs. He and his wife Gloria have also donated materials. Other 1966 board members' presence still linger in the Indiana Room. A painting of a covered bridge by Dorothy Elmore (Dewey's wife) hangs next to the fireplace. Several books including Hadley Genealogy were donated by Maxine Osborne. Wean Accounts, an autobiography written by Blanche Wean can be found on our shelves along with other Indiana, Hendricks County, and Central Normal College materials donated by her daughters after her death. Two of Doris Wean Andrews (Blanche's daughter) paintings adorn our walls. Also, Gwen Guthrie Harrison's daughter, Anne Tussey, is presently serving her second term on the library board.

The Indiana Room's location has changed over the years. Initially, it was on the first floor of the original Carnegie building in the southeast corner. During the 1979 library expansion, the room was moved to the southeast corner of the second floor in the new addition next to the stairway. The room was larger and the stained glass windows from the historic Danville Methodist Episcopal Church were added.

During the twenty years in this location, the Indiana Room collection grew. The cemetery and obituary indexes were started. The indexes for the US Census for Hendricks County for the years 1850 and 1870 were completed. The photography collection was established. The library participated in the Historic Indiana Newspaper Microfilm Project and the old newspapers were microfilmed. A microfilm reader and a computer were added for public use. Programming was limited due to the small space for meetings. The few larger programs had to held outside the library. In 1995, a group formed at the Hendricks County Senior Citizens Center began meeting in the Indiana Room. The Genealogy Nuts have been gathering monthly at the library ever since.

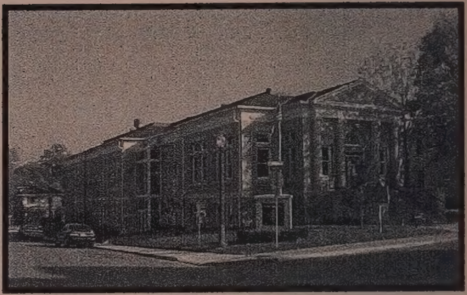
The final move was during the 1999 library addition. The Indiana Room was relocated to the new addition on the southeast corner of the second floor. The room became larger and the new moveable shelves tripled the book space. An office, microfilm room and archive were added. The library's original fireplace was moved to the room. The Methodist Episcopal Church stained glass windows frame the Indiana Room entrance. Two display cases border the stain glass windows.



Danville Public Library, 2003

Today the collection's primary focus is on historical and genealogical materials about Danville, Hendricks County and Indiana. The secondary focus is genealogical materials from the migratory states into Indiana. The collection includes books, magazines, videos, cassettes, CD-ROM's, microfilm, microfiche, photographs, postcards, and memorabilia. The Indiana Family Histories, Indiana Vital Records and the Central Normal College and Canterbury College collections have greatly expanded.

Indiana Room, 2005.

The Indiana Room now has its own copier and microfilm/fiche reader/printer. The two public use computers are for genealogy and history research only. Online resources include Ancestry Library Edition, Heritage Quest Online, Inspire and Newsbank.

The obituary indexing project has continued. A Master Correspondence index was started. Other major projects have included historical markers for DPL and Central Normal College/Canterbury College, DPL Centennial Celebration, and DPL 1902 & 2003 Time Capsules.

While most Indiana Room visitors are local, many are from outside Indiana. During the past six years we have had visitors from thirty-five states and seven countries outside the U.S. Most of the out-of-state or country visitors are seeking ancestors who once lived in Hendricks County. The collection that has been built during the past 40 years is a wonderful help in their ancestor search.

Items from 1902 Time Capsule.

With the addition of the library program room in 1999, Indiana Room presentations have expanded. Programs have included genealogy workshops, book discussions, author talks, archaeology, local history, Indiana history, and art history. Outreach programs for local organizations have expanded. A Walking Tour of the Courthouse Square was created and is used by school groups and others. For several years the Indiana Room sponsored a Danville Jr. History Club and they successfully applied for two historical markers. The Genealogy Nuts still meet once a month and their membership has grown. Research trips to a variety of libraries and archives are arranged each year.

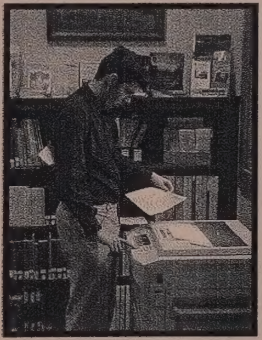
INDIANA ROOM STAFF

Over the years many dedicated staff members have guided and enriched its collection. In 1979 the first Historical Librarian Lynn Marmaduke was appointed to work in the Indiana Room. Since then staff has included:

Betty Bartley, Libbe Hughes, Lori Wynn Vittetow,
Becky Gramling, Cindy Rutledge, Meredith Thompson,
Larry Fitzgerald, Henry Tuttle and Rose Ann Sigborn.



Henry Tuttle in 2004.

Many volunteers have helped with a variety of projects over the past 40 years from the library board in 1966 that helped clean out the original room to the volunteers today who are helping with the obituary index. The many hours the volunteers have worked have greatly enhanced the Indiana Room's collection and services.

Our sincere thanks to all who have helped make the Indiana Room the haven for genealogists and historians it is today. Hopefully, the Indiana Room will continue to encourage genealogical and historical research and preservation for many years to come.

Becky Gramling in 1999.

THE WELCOME SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA

INDIANA ROOM
DANVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Welcome Society of Pennsylvania

When the Welcome Society of Pennsylvania was incorporated in 1906, one of its specified purposes was "to collect and preserve historic data relative to the settlement of the State of Pennsylvania and the founding of the City of Philadelphia." This book is offered as Number 1 of the Publications of the Welcome Society of Pennsylvania.

The membership of the Society is composed of persons who descend from passengers on the ship Welcome which brought William Penn to America, or from passengers on any other vessel carrying people primarily to Pennsylvania and which arrived between 1 July 1682 and 2 November 1682, inclusive.

first at New Castle 27 October, and finally at Upland the next day, 28 October 1682.[108]

The Welcome [19]

Robert Greenway, master, for Pennsylvania

7 [July] Daniel Wharley: 17 cwt. wrought iron; 1 mill at £53 16*s.* 9*d.* [Duty] £3 2*s.* 4*d.*[109]

19 [July] Dennis Rochford: 14 cwt. wrought iron; 1½ cwt. haberdashery; 2 bushels pease; 3 flitches bacon; 1 chest window glass; 6 lbs. shoes; 1 great saddle; cwt. wrought pewter. [Duty] 16*s.* 1½*d.* From the Free List: 7 parcels of apparel.[110]

[108] The exact tonnage for the Welcome is found in C.O. 13/14, 15, PRO. For newspaper notices of the Welcome's sailing, see PMHB, LXXV, 153, 154. For its arrival at New Castle, see Records of the Court of New Castle on Delaware (Meadville, 1935), II (1681-1699), 21. For discussion of the Welcome passenger list, see Marion Balderston, "The Real Welcome Passengers," The Huntington Library Quarterly, XXVI (1962), 31-55, and George E. McCracken, "Welcome Notes," The American Genealogist, Vol. 38 (1962), Vol. 39 (1963). The loadings for the Welcome are from London port book E 190/109/1, and Export of Woolen Cloth E 190/113/1, PRO.

[109] Daniel Wharley, London woolen draper and merchant, was not a passenger on the Welcome. He carried on an extensive trade with the West Indies, and had married Mary Penington, half-sister of William Penn's first wife. PMHB, XXI (1897), 11n; Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, XIX, 730. The mill he sent was probably that set up in Chester Co. by Richard Townsend, and which Caleb Pusey operated. See Smith, Delaware County, 147. Richard Townsend, carpenter of London and F.P. of 250 acres, with his wife Ann and daughter Hannah, were passengers, although they shipped no dutiable goods. He came in as a salaried employee of the Free Society of Traders, and brought with him three indentured servants of his own: William Smith, Nathaniel Harrison, and Bartholomew Green, each to serve him seven years. PMHB, VIII 339.

Benjamin Chambers, turner of Bearsted, Kent Co., and F.P. of 1000 acres, another passenger, brought a certificate of removal from Rochester, dated 18 5m 1682. Myers, Quaker Arrivals, 5. He succeeded Dr. Nicholas More as president of the Free Society of Traders. Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, XIX, 19. He was an executor of the will of William Wade of the parish of Hankton, Sussex, written 20 Sept. 1682, and proved 6 6m 1684. For abstract see PGSP, I, 49-50. Witnesses to Wade's will, written on board the Welcome, included Richard Ingelo, George Thompson, a grocer, and William Lushington. Ingelo (Ingels) in 1685 was granted 800 acres to recompense him for his services as secretary of the Provincial Council. See Colonial Records, I, 131, 133, 144, 149, 154. For George Thompson, see Note 111 below. Zechariah Whitpain, son of Richard Whitpain, citizen and butcher of London who acquired 7000 acres by purchase from various First Purchasers, also witnessed William Wade's will, as evidenced by the original in Office of the Register of Wills, Philadelphia City Hall. See Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, XIX, 397-399 for Richard Whitpain's purchases.

[110] The date of Dennis Rochford's arrival is given as "about" 24 8m 1682; see PMHB, VIII, 334. A grocer of Brighthelmston, Sussex, he brought his 2nd wife Marie, daughter of John Heriott, with him, two daughters, Grace and Mary, who died on shipboard of smallpox, and two servants, Thomas Jones and Jeane Mathewes. When Rochford died intestate in 1693, he was living in Philadelphia County; see PGM, XIX, 263 for abstract of administration. His servant Thomas Jones may have been the man who was constable of Upper Providence Twp., Chester Co., in 1691. See Chester Court Records, 233.

Thomas Heriott, Rochford's brother-in-law, of Hurstpierpoint, Sussex and F.P. of 5000 acres, died on the Welcome. PGSP, I, 46. Witnesses to his will were George Thompson, Dr. Thomas Wynne, David Ogden and Joshua Morris. Joshua Morris, a "Tynn-plate-worker," died intestate and letters of administration were granted 18 Jan. 1696/7 to Samuel Nicholls, sawyer, on behalf of Morris' brothers, Henry, Richard and John Morris. PGM, XIX, 267. David Ogden, weaver, brought a certificate of removal from London, dated 26 11m 1681/2. Myers, Quaker Arrivals, 7. He settled in Providence Twp., and in 1686 m. Martha Houlston, daughter of John, according to Smith, Delaware County, 489. See also Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, XIX, 245. Dr. Thomas Wynne, of Caerwys, Flintshire, Wales, with John ap John of Denbighshire, were joint F.P. of 5000 acres. Though a Welsh Tract purchaser, Wynne settled in Lewes, Sussex Co. See Browning, 181-193, and PGM, XXII, 222-225, for corrections regarding Wynne's wife Elizabeth, who probably accompanied him.

27 [July] Thomas Fitzwater: 4 cwt. iron; 4 cwt. nails. [Duty] 3*s*.[111]

10 [August] Robert Smith: 5½ cwt. gunpowder. [Duty] 11*s*.

11 [August] John West: 22 cwt. red and white lead; tinware value £24 10*s*.[112]

11 [August] Philip Ford: from the Free List, 400 lbs. of apparel; 12 dozen bodices; 20 fustians; 100 oz. [silver] plate. From the Wool Book: 2½ single cloths; 12 kerseys; 3 penistones friezed.

12 [August] Philip Ford: 10 cwt. hard soap; 3 chests window glass; 29 cwt. wrought iron; 46 cwt. nails; 2 cwt. wrought pewter; 100 doz. candles; 20 cwt. lead shot; 600 yds. flannel; 2 cwt. cordage; 4 doz. [111] Thomas Fitzwater of Hanworth, near Hampton Court, Middlesex, lost his wife Mary and children Josiah and Mary on the Welcome, presumably from smallpox. Their other two children, Thomas Jr., and George, either did not get it, or survived the epidemic, as did the Fitzwater's servant, John Ottey, misprinted as "Hey" in PMHB, IX, 228. See also Roberts-Walton Ancestry, 60-65, for account of the Fitzwaters. Perhaps it was to console Fitzwater in some small measure that he was left £5 by Isaac Ingram of Garton, Surrey, who also died on shipboard. Other bequests made by Ingram in his will included £5 to Jane (incorrectly transcribed as "James") Batchelor who m. 1 2m 1684, Richard Tucker, with consent of the Philadelphia Meeting; £10 to John Songhurst; and to the children of Ingram's "lately deceased" sister Miriam Short: Adam, Miriam and Anne Short, all his goods on board the ship. Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, IX, 203; PGSP, I, 48-49. Ingram's niece Miriam Short had m. George Thompson, the grocer, mentioned in Note 109 above, by the following February, 1683, when he and she were hailed into Chester Court for having been married by the Swedish Lutheran minister "Contrary to the Lawes of ye Province." Apparently Thompson died within two years, for in January, 1685, the inhabitants of Concord, Bethel and Chichester in Chester County were instructed by the court to decide on "how to Provide a maintenance for Miriam Thomson and her Child." Chester Court Records, 23, 49.

John Songhurst, carpenter and legatee of Isaac Ingram, from Chiltington, Sussex, and F.P. with John Barnes of Sussex of 1250 acres, came with his daughter Elizabeth, wife of John Barber of Shipley, Sussex, who died on shipboard. In Barber's will he left to his mother [Mary] a "broad piece of gold," to his brother Edward, and sisters Mary, Sarah and Hannah each "one guney a piece." It was witnessed by Thompson, the grocer, Joseph Woodrooffe and Thomas Gillett. PGSP, I, 48. Thomas Gillett obtained a warrant for 200 acres in New Castle Co. 5 Feb. 1682/3, for which see Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, VII, 193. Joseph Woodroofe (Woodruff) may have gone to Salem, N. J., where this family name was already established. Samuel Smith, The History of the Colony of Nova Caesaria, or New Jersey (Trenton, N. J., 1890), 152.

[112] John West, tinman of London and F.P. of 1250 acres, also had invested in the Free Society of Traders. For list of subscribers, see PMHB, XI (1887), 175-180. His daughter Hannah had married Benjamin East, son of William East, master of the Hester & Hannah, mentioned in Note 35 above. See transcript of Registers of London and Middlesex Quarterly Meeting, cited in Note 86 above. While John West may not have been a passenger on the Welcome, certainly John Rowland of Billinghurst, Sussex, his wife, the former Priscilla Shepherd, and Thomas Rowland, John's brother, were, since they registered their arrival. PMHB, IX, 225. Both men were First Purchasers, John of 1250 acres, and Thomas of 2500, while Priscilla had purchased 500 acres in her own name. With them came a servant girl, Hannah Mogdridge, (Maugridge), indented to serve till May, 1684, who married Thomas Rogers, who came in as a servant to the Free Society of Traders. Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, XIX, 671-672. See also Bucks Court Records, 94, 99, for the theft of some of Rogers' goods by a run-away slave.

William Penn brought his secretary, Philip Theodore Lehnman (Thelmain, Lemain), a F.P. of 1000 acres from Bristol. The young man remained in Pennsylvania when Penn returned to England in 1684, and died in December, 1687, possessed of three plantations: Green Spring in Sussex Co., one at Broad Creek in the same county, and one in Kent Co., which he left to Thomas Holme, William Penn and Charles Pickering, respectively. PGSP, I, 62-63.

Also passengers on the Welcome were William Buckman, carpenter of Billingshurst, Sussex, his wife Sarah and daughters Sarah and Mary. It is said William's widowed mother Joan, his brothers Edward and Thomas Buckman, F.P. of 300 acres, and their sister Ruth Buckman accompanied him, but only Ruth survived the trip. She m. 4 3m 1687, Richard Harrison in Nottingham Twp., according to George E. McCracken in The American Genealogist, Vol. 38, 154-157, cited in Note 108. His account clarifies the account in Davis, Bucks County, 85.

10 bushels oatmeal; 10 cwt. books; 6½ lbs. glue; 4 cwt. brass; 4½ cwt. clockwork; [illegible] cwt. haberdashery; 5½ cwt. gunpowder; 4 lbs. thrown silk; 6 firkins butter; 3 cwt. cheese; 24 shod shovels; 2 cwt. earth[en]ware. [Duty] £12 12*s.* 6½*d.*

15 [August] Dennis Rochford: 11 cwt. wrought iron; 10 cwt. nails; 6 small, 2 great saddles; cwt. cordage; 20 small gross tobacco pipes; cwt. cheese; 4 firkins butter; 12 cwt. shot; 1½ cwt. pewter; 6 castors, 6 felts [hats]; 1 doz. shod shovels; 2 cwt. shoes; 2 cwt. wrought copper; 2 doz. men's worsted hose; 2 cwt. haberdashery; 1 doz. candles. [Duty] £4 8*s.* 4*d.*

[15 August] Daniel Wharley: from the Wool Book, 4 kerseys; 1 short cloth.

16 [August] Daniel Wharley: 275 goads cottons; 1 small minikin baye; 3½ cwt. brass; 14 cwt. nails; 20 cwt. wrought iron; 3 doz. shod shovels; 2 chests window glass; 7 doz. candles; 1½ cwt. gunpowder; 4 cwt. lead shot; 3¼ cwt. pewter; 60 lbs. serges; ½ cwt. haberdashery. [Duty] £2 2*s.* 9½*d.* From the Free List: 7 parcels of apparel.

[16 August] Philip Ford: 20 lbs. stuffs; 100 lbs. shoes; 56 felts; 4 cwt. iron; 4 cwt. nails; ½ cwt. pewter. [Duty] 13*s.* 4*d.*

17 [August] Daniel Wharley: 50 lbs. shoes; ½ cwt. cordage; 2 horse collars. [Duty] 2*s.* 4*d.*

21 [August] John Wilmer: 410 yds. flannel. [Duty] 1*s.* 6*d.*

Probably before the end of October the next ship, the Jeffrey, of about 500 tons, arrived in the Delaware. Aboard her were the president of the Free Society of Traders in Pennsylvania, Dr. Nicholas More; John Goodson, "chyrrugeon" to the Society, Ralph Withers, deputy treasurer of the Society; skilled workmen hired by the Society, and probably some settlers. Several London merchants put on goods for Virginia the first week in September, and the last loading was on 12 September of goods intended for that place. Eleven days later it was reported in the Downs "bound for Pennsylvania." After it had actually set sail, it made the voyage in twenty-nine days.[113]

[113] For references to the Jeffrey's sailing, see PMHB, LXXV, 153, 154, items from the Epitome of the Weekly News, Numb. 2, and Domestick Intelligence, Numb. 137, both of which papers are in Huntington Library. See also extracts from James Claypoole's letters, PMHB, X, 197, 199, 200, 269. He wrote that "above 50 servts" belonging to the Free Society, which chartered the ship, were sailing on it, but no complete record of their names has survived. Aside from Richard Townsend who came on the Welcome, and Joshua Tittery who came in 1683, the names of only six known servants have been found. These were Abraham, Jane, Thomas and John Pratt, who applied for their headland in 1703; Samuel Miles who applied for his in 1705, and Thomas Rogers of Bensalem, mentioned in Note 112 above. Pennsylvania Archives, 2nd Series, XIX, 409, 462, 672. For the charter of the Free Society, see PMHB, V (1881), 37, or Hazard, Register, I, 394, which last also includes a brief account of an early meeting of the Society's founders.

Isaac Wheeldon of "Llanroost," Denbighshire, glover, to whom James Claypoole sent his love in a letter dated 21 7m 1682, addressed to John Goodson, when the Jeffrey was in the Downs, had purchased a share of the John ap John-Thomas Wynne purchase of 5000 acres. Wheeldon obtained a warrant for 156 acres to be laid out in Chester County 16 3m 1683, having already gotten a warrant for a city lot the month before. In 1695 he assigned his rights in his original purchase to Samuel Lewis of Darby. Browning, 176; Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd Series, III, 50, 176, 179. In the same letter Claypoole asked to be remembered to Nathaniel Watson, also on board the Jeffrey. When Watson died in 1688, he left bequests of £20 "at least," to his kinsman Router of Burlington; to Robert and Ann Eyres £4 "or five if it will be spared"; to Samuel Bulkley £5, and to Hannah Decow £20. For abstract of his will see PGSP, I, 68-69, and for mention of the two men, see the original Claypoole Letter-Book, HSP. For loadings of the Jeffrey, see London port book E 190/109/1, PRO.

John,

I have been very busy working on other lines. I have not worked on my SCARBOROUGH line for a while. I thank you for the offer, but perhaps later.

I am attaching what I have on my earliest SCARBOROUGH down to your Robert. Let me know if you need more.

romantically known as the Gold Hole Tower.

Richmond's remoteness, rather than its strength, seems to have been its main protection, for it escaped both the Wars of the Roses and the Civil War.

Henry VIII made his illegitimate son, Henry Fitzroy, Duke of Richmond in 1525, but the lad died when seventeen. The title was conferred elsewhere but died out again. Charles II then revived it for his illegitimate son, Charles Lennox, and the title has stayed in that family ever since.

RIPLEY

The Ingilby family have lived here since the fourteenth century. Ripley was granted to Thomas Ingilby for saving the life of Edward III when hunting. Much of the castle was rebuilt in 1780, although the gatehouse is fifteenth century.

In Ripley, 3½ miles north of Harrogate, 7½ miles from Ripon. Open: Easter Sunday and Monday, 11 a.m.–6 p.m. then May–September, Sundays 2–6 p.m. and Bank Holidays 11 a.m.–6 p.m. Open daily July and August 2–6 p.m.
Privately owned:
Sir Thomas Ingilby, Bt.

SCARBOROUGH

The site was fortified from a very early period. The Romans had a signal station here; they used points like Scarborough to give warning of the sighting of Saxon raiders out at sea. However, in later years Scarborough itself was sometimes sacked. Inevitably, a place of such strategic importance would see more than its fair share of violence, and the 100 feet high keep, which had been built by Henry II, was often put to a military test. In the Civil War Scarborough Castle was besieged twice and severely damaged in the process. In December 1914 it was bombarded by the German navy. In addition to its military history, the castle was also used as a prison. George Fox (see Launceston Castle) was once imprisoned here. The Well of Our Lady, at the cliff top, was long believed to have special healing powers.

Scarborough is a vast, memorable castle in a superb position. It should not be missed.

Scarborough Castle is on a headland above the town, 300 feet above sea-level. It is in the care of the Department of the Environment, and open:

Local veterinarian partners CVM short-term mission trip

In April of this year, Dr. Jack Gillespie traveled to Nicaragua as part of a mission team to help establish a Christian Veterinarian Mission program in that country. The team leader was a retired veterinarian from Texas, and the other partner was a large animal veterinarian from Alabama. The primary objective of this trip was to establish a working relationship with a Nicaraguan church, to help coordinate outreach missions which can help train veterinary students, and provide a service to animals that otherwise would not get veterinary service.

Christian Veterinary Mission (CVM) is a CRISTA ministry with a mission to challenge, empower, and facilitate veterinarians to serve others through their profession, living out their Christian faith. CRISTA ministries bring hope to life. CVM short term missions are funded by the participants, usually with assistance from churches, family, friends, and veterinary colleagues. Several members of Brownstown United Methodist Church made donations to CVM and designated their gift for support of Dr. Gillespie's mission trip.

Gillespie said: "Nicaragua is one of the poorest nations in Central America. The CVM team was able to establish a mission program with Rev. Daniel Ortega Reyes pastor of the Centro Mesianico Cantico Nuevo Church, in Managua. This church has existing facilities for outreach missions in two locations in poor rural cities medicine."

He also indicated he will probably return to Nicaragua to help support continuing Christian Veterinary Mission programs. For more information about CVM go to: www.cvmusa.org or www.crista.org or call and talk to Gillespie at 358-2392.

LANNING SPUR CEMETERY

CARR TOWNSHIP JACKSON COUNTY INDIANA
Compiled by: Jackson County Genealogical Society Members
Jackson County Cemetery Book Coordinator: Wilma Ping
Carr Township Coordinator: Sharon Guthrie
JCGS © 2001

LOCATION: T5N, R3E, Sections 34. From Medora, travel westward on old U.S. 50 (now County Road 350 S) to the Carr Township Conservation Club building. Lanning Spur Cemetery is back the lane behind the club building and it is in the shape of a horseshoe.

REFERENCES: Monuments, newspapers (e.g., obituaries) and D.A.R. Jackson County Indiana Cemetery Book (1952). The spelling of names has not been changed to current spellings. Therefore, search for different spelling variations of the same surname.

NOTES: Abbreviations used in this text are listed previous page of this book. See table of contents for page number. Numerical dates are written in the order of month-day-year (e.g., 12-25-1900).

The Lanning Spur Cemetery was surveyed in October and November of 1983 by Sharon E. Guthrie. According to a member of the Darkis family all of row one (1) is the location of her family members in unmarked graves. The order of burial is not known. Listing of stones began on the west side of the cemetery. On 12 December 1998, Paul A. Carr wrote, "[this] was the site of many burials during the 1800s, including several Civil War veterans. Many of the stones that previously marked the graves have been destroyed or displaced by vandalism, improper use of tractor power mowers, weathering of the stones" and so forth.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This collection of Cemeteries and Graveyards has been gathered from past historian's records and recent visits to some of the graveyards that have been updated. We are indebted to Mr. Forrest Calico (1885-1973) who made untold contributions to historic preservation in Garrard County. He worked tirelessly to record even the most remote cemeteries, and after his death, his son-in-law, William R. Tudor, continued to record this history.

In 1978, many of these records were compiled and typed by Harold E. Layton in the Garrard County Public Library. This year, 1988, the Garrard County Historical Society, with Anna Hamilton Arnold, Chairperson of this project, has updated and retyped for publication these most important records.

The Garrard County Historical Society thanks these interested citizens for the research and valuable time in assisting in this endeavor: Betty Ball, Patricia Ballard, Samuel Bourne, Mildred Calico, Linda Carney, Wilma Cornelius, Mrs. Russell Cotton, Barbara Dunn, Mary Early, Mary Hulett, Harold E. Layton, Sadie Kuhlman, Alice Montgomery, Betty A. Montgomery, Edward Montgomery, Flossie Oakes, Virginia Prather, Juanita Ruble, Bettie Sparks, Lillie Mae Robinson, Helen Calico Whittaker, Barbara Warren, Thelma Warren, and Madge Warren. A special thank-you to William R. Tudor for his interest and generosity in sharing Mr. Calico's records, and for his tireless work in 1978.

Listing: 154 County Cemeteries and Graveyards.
Date of birth of oldest person buried 1737.
Oldest burial listed 1794.

FOREWORD

The Garrard County Historical Society has made every effort to copy these records in their original form, but we understand there will be errors in names, dates etc. When there are so many records to be retyped, recopied and rearranged there are bound to be mistakes and for these we appologize.

When errors are found we will appreciate your letting us know about them so that they can be corrected in the next printing of this book. We will need the page number where error can be found and also the correct information. Please send your letters to the Garrard County Historical Society, c/o Anna H. Arnold, 107 Glenmore Heights, Lancaster, Kentucky 40444.

John,

Thanks for the marriage record and application for Taylor and Ann Eliza. Had no trouble printing them. Following is Simpson's obit.

The reference is: The Brownstown (IN) Banner, Thursday, 29 January 1885.

Simpson Adams, an old man of 74 years of age, residing near Medora, died last week from injuries received from a sharp-pointed weed, upon which he had fallen while in a state of intoxication, and which penetrated his brain through the eye. He leaves a wife and some six children.

The 1850 and 1880 censuses of Bullitt, Hardin, and Meade Counties were searched for information relating to the interred. The census information has been included in this book. Some may have been overlooked so do not assume that they were not listed in the census because their census information does not appear here. The reader will discover that some information is duplicated. In some instances this was intentional and in other instances this was discovered after the book was indexed and is attributable to memory limitations of the author. The code used for the census information is as follows: The first character, a number, indicates the nineteenth century decade (5 is for 1850 and 8 is for 1880). The second character, a letter, is the first letter of the county involved ("B" is for Bullitt, "H" is for Hardin, and "M" is for Meade). The next three characters represent the page number of the census. An "R" following the numbers indicates the reverse side of a page. Example: 5H342R indicates page 342R of the 1850 census for Hardin County. A census code enclosed by brackets indicates census information that is found elsewhere in this book. It can be readily located by use of the index. The page number is the stamped number in the upper right corner of the census page. The "R" pages are not stamped. Some libraries and universities have copies of the census on microfilm. Photo-copies of pages of the census are available from the National Archives in Washington, D. C. for a nominal fee. In the 1850 census a household can usually be assumed to be a family but there are exceptions. In most cases the obvious assumptions are correct, however the author attempted to list those on the 1850 census as household members only. Assumptions and conclusions are left to the reader. This situation was clarified somewhat in the 1880 census by the addition of a column to indicate the relationship of household members to the head of the household.

Occupations are listed only when they were other than farmer or laborer. Birthplaces were generally omitted from this work when they were listed as "Kentucky".

The 1850 census for Bullitt County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 193, Hardin County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 203, and Meade County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 213. The 1880 census for Bullitt County is on two rolls. Page numbers 240R and smaller are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 405 and page numbers 241 and subsequent are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 406. The 1880 census for Hardin County is also on two rolls. Page numbers 400R and smaller are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 417 and page numbers 401 and subsequent are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 418. The 1880 census for Meade County is on Micro Publication T9, Roll 433.

Another research source was the series of newspaper articles in the Westpoint Beacon in 1903 by Dr. T. B. Greenley entitled "Westpoint, Old and New". He was eighty-five years of age when he wrote the articles and he wrote from personal knowledge. 5H342R: Thomas B. Greenley 32, was a physician who was born in Maryland. His household was listed as: Ann E. 27, Thomas C. 6, James C. 3, Corinna W. 1, and John M. 23, a physician who was also born in Maryland. In one of his articles, Dr. Greenley stated that he came to Westpoint in 1844 and studied medicine under Dr. John Lloyd.

There are other valuable sources for historical and genealogical research in the Fort Knox area. One of these is "Kentucky Genealogy and Biography, Volume 1". It includes biographical sketches from Hancock, La Rue, Hardin, Edmonson, Hart, Breckinridge, Grayson, and Meade Counties. Reprinted from "Kentucky, a History of the State" which was written by Battle,

Subject: Re: ALSUP - ADAMS Family

Hello Paula,

If I overlook any of your questions and fail to answer each one, please let me know. I am sooo excited to find Mason's descendants! I am happy to share my information with the family.

1. Simpson ADAMS (the senior) is buried Lanning Spur Cemetery, Carr Twp., Jackson County, Indiana. This is where his marker was placed, but we did NOT know the location of the actual grave. All that Hal's mother, Pearl recalled is that her grandfather was buried in Lanning Spur Cemetery.
2. You can obtain copies of Simpson ADAMS' military (pension) papers through the NARA or write to: National Archives & Records Administration, 7th & Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20408. There are over 150 pages, I think. Most genealogy societies, local libraries and/or historical societies have forms to be filed with the NARA. You can also obtain military forms on-line via NARA.org. Simpson served in the Civil War, Corporal Simpson Adams--Reported on above is the only one of that or similar name being on rolls Co. B, 12th Regiment KY Infantry Volunteers. He enlisted in the war on 21 October 1861 and was discharged 28 October 1862. I think the cost for the pension papers was about $40.
3. In our area, we only contribute to the local LDS for reasons that I will not go into at this time. Many of the LDS compiled records leave a lot to be desired and should only be used only as a guide to find actual references.
4. I do not have "Taylor" ADAMS' marriage record. Zachary T. ADAMS aka Taylor ADAMS was born 11 February 1873, per Simpson's military papers. I do not have any of his vitals or descendants. Lost him after the 1880 Jackson Co., IN Census.
5. It was a Stella LAMB who married Walter BRYANT (I think) and they resided in Richmond, IN per oral history. Some of Elizabeth's descendants reside in Jackson Co., IN.
6. Once in a while I go on-line to research, but it is usually to come up with a clue of who to look for and where to look for the information. Usually during the winter, I do not have access nor time to search the Internet. I think that I responded to your query although I am not positive. Too busy with other projects to spend as much time as I would like on-line.
7. Following is the info that I have on the first few generations of Simpson ADAMS descendants. If you cannot figure this out, please let me know ASAP and I will mail you the family group sheets.
8. Descendants of Simpson Adams

Kentucky State Historical Society
Frankfort, Ky.

Dear Sirs:

In our Genealogy Library in Salt Lake City, it states in one of your volumes of history books the following:

INDEX TO MILITARY CERTIFICATES.

John McQuerry p. 152

William McQuerry p. 24

This William Mc Querry was born Feb. 9, 1765 and died Apr. 25, 1832 (perhaps this is his burial date) He was buried in Flat Lick Baptist Cemetery in Somerset, Pulaski Co., Ky.

The John McQuerry was probably his brother.

What I would like to find out is how much data does this Military Certificate give on the record, as to his age, parents names and where he served in the war?

I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope for your reply.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Maybelle Herbert

The McQueary Family

Came from the "MacQUARRIE CLAN" in Southwest Scotland near the Ayr River and the Campbell Clan.

William McQueary II moved from N. C. to Ky. in 1811; to Mo. & back to Ky. in 1820.

The McQueary's of the original class as well as the later generations are travelers. They are scattered all over and they are to be found in all parts of the world.

McQUEARY FAMILY RE-UNION at PULASKI COUNTY PARK ON CUMBERLAND LAKE five miles west of Somerset, Kentucky,
Monday, May 31, 1954.

Assembled here today en masse for dinner, reminiscences, picnicing, pass-time and visiting are many of the lineal descendents of the original MacQuarrie Clan of Scotland. The name came from the family name Quar of the twelfth century derived from the Gaelic word (Guaire meaning NOBLE. From their island homes of Ulva and Mull they have become a legion as farmers, workers, teachers, lawyers, doctors, ministers to Governor General of New South Wales, Attorney General of Nova Scotia, Governor of Kentucky and United States Senators from Kentucky.

Ancestors to this immediate part of the United States came through Jamestown, Virginia early in the 17th century, John McQueary settling at Lynchburg, Va., his sons, Wm. McQueary Andrew McQueary and grandson, John McQueary going via North Carolina over the Boone Trail into Kentucky in the eighteenth century. The grandson, John, lived and died in what is now known as Pulaski County, Ky., and he is buried in the eastern part of this county at Mt Pleasant Church, of which he was a member and officer. He was the great grandfather of the Committeemen of this Re-Union, H. C. McQueary and Ottis McQueary.

Andrew McQueary pressed on further west and settled lands in what are now known as Adair, Casey and Russell counties. William McQueary headed northeast from here and settled lands in what now are known as Lincoln, Garrard, Jessamine, Madison and Rockcastle Counties. In their day, Kentucky was a county of Virginia, and Kentucky was at first divided into only three counties, Lincoln, Fayette and Jefferson. Many McQuearys of these sections are here today, and a surprising number have come from many other states of the U. S. Laurence McQueary, Old Time Fiddler of the Day, and his family of four drove through from Denver; his aunt flew. E.E. McQueary of the Apple Valley Country and John McQueary of Louisiana are here.

The McQuearys welcome here today representatives of their collateral kin: The McKinneys, Browns, Smiths, Busters, Cashs, Mays, Bullocks, Burdines, Broyles, Burtons, Gilmores, Maxwells, Graggs, Deans, Paschals, Woodalls, Bakers, Griffins, Catrons, Elrods, Parks, Francis, Taylors, Barrons, Bass, Hughes, Ellisons, McDowells, Gentrys, Blumes, Owens, Inabnits, Crows, Millers, Cummins, Whites, Richardsons, Bristows, Stones, Meeces, McAlisters, Lathams, Shucks, Poynters, Gillilands, Stephens, McDonoughs, Frenches, Nicelys, Hines, Snooks, Hoskins, Rhodes, Stevensons, Ruckers, Zacherys, McKenzies, Purcells, Rexroats, Talleys, Blacks, Armstrongs, Whites.

This case 71 ran through the courts for years, in Texas and Louisiana. When Spencer James Adams died and left his widow Mary Brown Adams and the Heirs John Adams Adams, Sally and Spencer J. he left them a fortune consisting of a huge plantation holdings, negros,equipment and livestock in Natchitoches Parish, Louisiana. Jessie has recently had a reply that the case was so extensive that it would cost $55.00 for photostatic copies. She plans to study records in Natchitoches this coming summer of 1948. She was there the summer of 1946 but the District Clerk had some difficulty locating the old records and she necessarily had to leave to return later.

John Adams Adams ran away and Joined the Confederate Army, his slave Walter found him and stayed in the army with him when possible. Old Walter told Jessie's mother who was a daughter of John Adams Adams,"that Masta'John told me to keep up with young John if it kilt me". Walter lived and died after his master young John and his mother went to see him as he was almost dying, which made him very happy. (His death was about 1900).

I find that a Jno [John] ADAMS received a land grant for Paint Lick Cr in Garrard Co., KY on 14 Sept. 1798. There is a good possibility that this is Simpson's father. It appears that it is in book 11 page 300, but the book and page are hazy. The other possibilities are John ADAMS who received a land grant for Harmons Lick Cr book 25, page 7 1/4 and George ADAMS who received a land grant for Sugar Cr. on 26 July 1825 in book R, page 102 and/or 110. On Application for Accrued Pension Mary Ann ALLSUP states that they were married 15 October 1867 in Lancaster, KY.

Mary A. ADAMS, Medora, IN filed 3 July 1890 under new law.

Mary A. ADAMS now McQUERRY of Cartersville, Garrard, KY filed for Widow's Pension again on 22 Feb 1902 and listed children as Jefferson, Martha, Elizabeth and Katherine. > Beverlyn,
> Hi. You may be sorry you ever found me. I may make a pest of myself. Haha. I have been working on this Adams family since 1953 as I may have told you. I feel like it is my baby. So I am so into this. I have so many questions to ask. Hope my sister didn't write before I could get to this. Don't want two of us to bugging you with same questions. If she did, I apologize if we both are asking same questions. She told me so many things over the phone, I may be mixed up who she wrote. Needless to say, we both are so excited to have your letters.
> First off, what city and state is it that Simpson Adams is buried? Where you put the marker? Could you tell me where you found Simpson's military papers so that we may get a copy? Or could you send us a copy? All family information has to be accompanied with factual info as to where we obtained it. That is if we plan to submit to Mormon Lib. in SLC, UT. Which we do intend to do. so any info you send us, could you let me know where you got it? I will do the same for you.
> Do you have Taylor Adams information? His birth and death information, and do you have a list of his children? That is where Jack and Bob come in. I think my sister said something about answering your questions. She didn't know I had asked you if you had heard of them. Taylor Simpson was Simpson's eldest child. I have found a cousin in northern IN that is a direct link to Taylor Adams. Wanda Pate. She gave us all her family's history, including Taylor Adams and his wife Anna Eliza Lamb. Let me know what you need.
> Does it say what war Simpson was in anyplace in regards to Mary Ann trying to get his pension? Do you have the info written out on regular genealogy paper like Family Tree software provides? The info you have sent is SOOOOO INTERESTING, but confusing to get it in correct sequence on paper. Anyway you could send me a sheet on Simpson? I will send my address incase it is too difficult to send over computer. Paula Francis 8330 W. Bluefield Peoria, AZ 85382
> This one line is very interesting to me:Elizabeth Adams md Wm. Bryant, was one of Mason's sisters. Elizabeth had a child who married a Lamb and resided in Northern IN. That could possibly be Anna Eliza Lamb who was married to Taylor Adams. Think so? Oh, I am so confused! I need to see a sheet in front of me with names dates, locations, etc. Do you already have all the info you need or want about Mason. I can sure fill you in there. My mother was one of his kids.
> That is so interesting to know you were trying to find me. How sweet to know I was wanted. Haha. Just kidding. I posted that stuff on genealogy and would go back to check for so long, and never any replies. I finally gave up. And then, when I started my own clown business, yellow pages and all, I got so busy, I forgot about checking. Then my husband started getting so sick. My attention and care went to him. But I am back. As I told you, I am combining scrapbooking and genealogy in one book on close relatives where I have pictures. So any pictures you may want a copy of, glad to send them. However, I know that is going off in a different direction being as was brother to Martha. Hard to follow the trail of all of them. I have a picture of Taylor Adams also. Nice looking man. I will HAVE to send you > a hilarious picture of THE ADAMS FAMILY. Reminds me that they would be related to the Adams family on TV. We all just love it. I think I will do that by mail. Every time I try to send a picture by email, I run into trouble. I know how to do it, but someway I may not be getting it to jpg size or something like that.

> Well, I am getting confused again. (Doesn't take much.) so I will quit for now. I will send you a copy of Mason & Willie Minerva and kids incase you want it, along with the picture.
> Please send me everything you have. I want it all. Haha. Send me all the sheets you may have filled out on Adams and info source. I will do the same if you want.
> Sister Janette is pulling it together as to what you sent. But needs source.
> Also, do you go on the Internet on any programs? Like Ancestry.com, etc? I have the high speed for the very reason to sign up for one of them. But I don't know which is the best. Have you had any luck getting info from one of them?

> > WOW! How interesting. According to BAKER oral family history of the ADAMS, Mary Ann's (b. 1845-1847, KY) maiden name was SCARBER/SCARBORO/et al. not ALSUP! The ONLY marriage record that I have found for Mary Ann was on her marriage to Wm McQUERRY. Simpson ADAMS' wife Elizabeth CASH swore that she was never divorced from Simpson (military papers). She produced several people who knew of their marriage and they provided depositions that they were married and never divorced. She even produce a marriage record. Mary Ann could not produce a marriage record to Simpson ADAMS and kept changing the date and place. Thus the government said that she was not the legal widow of Simpson and refused benefits to her and her children under 18 years of age. Mary Ann tried to get a widow pension after Simpson's wife, Elizabeth died, but was refused because she was never the legal widow of Simpson.
> > I do not know anything about John Archibald ALSUP. Never have found anything to indicate that Mary Ann was ever an ALSUP except for the military papers. From everything else that I have found, it indicates that Mary Ann was the daughter of Jacob and Mary Catherine BROCK SCARBOROUGH. It is possible that Mary Ann was born ALSUP and her guardians were the SCARBOROUGHS, but I have not found any paper trail to verify that. There were people by the name of LAMB buried at Springtown Cemetery, Garrard Co., KY. Elizabeth ADAMS md Wm BRYANT, was one of Mason's sisters. Elizabeth had a child who married a LAMB and resided in northern Indiana.
> > Mary Ann and Simpson ADAMS had a son named Simpson Taylor/Tyler ADAMS. He died in 1919 and could have had children the ages that you listed as Taylor Simpson and Lisa Lamb's children. WOW, how confusing. Looks like we have more research to do!

> > We were in the Phoenix area few years ago visiting my aunt who lived there during the winter. Know exactly what you mean about Wanda PATE! My husband's mother (88 years) could well be one of Wanda's aunts; sounds just like her. It is soooo great to finally be in contact with you. One year, I even sent post cards to every Paula Francis who was listed on the Internet.

You appear to be very talented, and I imagine that your little dog is a real sweety. We have a black short hair alley cat that is about 8 years old and a parrot who is about 23 years old. They travel with us.

We have two biological children and one adopted son who was killed in an accident in 1987. Our son, Gary now lives in Seymour and has a 13-year-old daughter and a 7-month-old son who was the third generation to be born on the 19th (March). My husband was born on 19 May 1939; I was born on 19 October, and Gary was born on 19 December in different years, of course. Our daughter was born on the 20th and missed the 19th by about an hour. Julia resided in CA for about 16 years and returned to Indiana in the fall of 2001; married December 2002 and lives about 2 miles from us on a farm. We are excited because our daughter just told us that we are going to be blessed with our third biological grandchild in July 2004. She has two sweet step-daughters, 10 years and 3 years.

Better give you a break and continue at another time. Would love to hear more about you.

Subject: Re: ALSUP - ADAMS Family

Hello Paula,

If I overlook any of your questions and fail to answer each one, please let me know. I am sooo excited to find Mason's descendants! I am happy to share my information with the family.

1. Simpson ADAMS (the senior) is buried Lanning Spur Cemetery, Carr Twp., Jackson County, Indiana. This is where his marker was placed, but we did NOT know the location of the actual grave. All that Hal's mother, Pearl recalled is that her grandfather was buried in Lanning Spur Cemetery.
2. You can obtain copies of Simpson ADAMS' military (pension) papers through the NARA or write to: National Archives & Records Administration, 7th & Pennsylvania Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20408. There are over 150 pages, I think. Most genealogy societies, local libraries and/or historical societies have forms to be filed with the NARA. You can also obtain military forms on-line via NARA.org. Simpson served in the Civil War, Corporal Simpson Adams--Reported on above is the only one of that or similar name being on rolls Co. B, 12th Regiment KY Infantry Volunteers. He enlisted in the war on 21 October 1861 and was discharged 28 October 1862. I think the cost for the pension papers was about $40.
3. In our area, we only contribute to the local LDS for reasons that I will not go into at this time. Many of the LDS compiled records leave a lot to be desired and should only be used only as a guide to find actual references.
4. I do not have "Taylor" ADAMS' marriage record. Zachary T. ADAMS aka Taylor ADAMS was born 11 February 1873, per Simpson's military papers. I do not have any of his vitals or descendants. Lost him after the 1880 Jackson Co., IN Census.
5. It was a Stella LAMB who married Walter BRYANT (I think) and they resided in Richmond, IN per oral history. Some of Elizabeth's descendants reside in Jackson Co., IN.
6. Once in a while I go on-line to research, but it is usually to come up with a clue of who to look for and where to look for the information. Usually during the winter, I do not have access nor time to search the Internet. I think that I responded to your query although I am not positive. Too busy with other projects to spend as much time as I would like on-line.
7. Following is the info that I have on the first few generations of Simpson ADAMS descendants. If you cannot figure this out, please let me know ASAP and I will mail you the family group sheets.

> Hi. You may be sorry you ever found me. I may make a pest of myself. Haha. I have been working on this Adams family since 1953 as I may have told you. I feel like it is my baby. So I am so into this. I have so many questions to ask. Hope my sister didn't write before I could get to this. Don't want two of us to bugging you with same questions. If she did, I apologize if we both are asking same questions. She told me so many things over the phone, I may be mixed up who she wrote. Needless to say, we both are so excited to have your letters.
> First off, what city and state is it that Simpson Adams is buried? Where you put the marker? Could you tell me where you found Simpson's military papers so that we may get a copy? Or could you send us a copy? All family information has to be accompanied with factual info as to where we obtained it. That is if we plan to submit to Mormon Lib. in SLC, UT. Which we do intend to do. so any info you send us, could you let me know where you got it? I will do the same for you.
> Do you have Taylor Adams information? His birth and death information, and do you have a list of his children? That is where Jack and Bob come in. I think my sister said something about answering your questions. She didn't know I had asked you if you had heard of them. Taylor Simpson was Simpson's eldest child. I have found a cousin in northern IN that is a direct link to Taylor Adams. Wanda Pate. She gave us all her family's history, including Taylor Adams and his wife Anna Eliza Lamb. Let me know what you need.
> Does it say what war Simpson was in anyplace in regards to Mary Ann trying to get his pension? Do you have the info written out on regular genealogy paper like Family Tree software provides? The info you have sent is SOOOOO INTERESTING, but confusing to get it in correct sequence on paper. Anyway you could send me a sheet on Simpson? I will send my address incase it is too difficult to send over computer. Paula Francis 8330 W. Bluefield Peoria, AZ 85382
> This one line is very interesting to me:Elizabeth Adams md Wm. Bryant, was one of Mason's sisters. Elizabeth had a child who married a Lamb and resided in Northern IN. That could possibly be Anna Eliza Lamb who was married to Taylor Adams. Think so? Oh, I am so confused! I need to see a sheet in front of me with names dates, locations, etc. Do you already have all the info you need or want about Mason. I can sure fill you in there. My mother was one of his kids.

That is so interesting to know you were trying to find me. How sweet to know I was wanted. Haha. Just kidding. I posted that stuff on genealogy and would go back to check for so long, and never any replies. I finally gave up. And then, when I started my own clown business, yellow pages and all, I got so busy, I forgot about checking. Then my husband started getting so sick. My attention and care went to him. But I am back. As I told you, I am combining scrapbooking and genealogy in one book on close relatives where I have pictures. So any pictures you may want a copy of, glad to send them. However, I know that is going off in a different direction being as was brother to Martha. Hard to follow the trail of all of them. I have a picture of Taylor Adams also. Nice looking man. I will HAVE to send you a hilarious picture of THE ADAMS FAMILY. Reminds me that they would be related to the Adams family on TV. We all just love it. I think I will do that by mail. Every time I try to send a picture by email, I run into trouble. I know how to do it, but someway I may not be getting it to jpg size or something like that.
Well, I am getting confused again. (Doesn't take much.) so I will quit for now. I will send you a copy of Mason & Willie Minerva and kids incase you want it, along with the picture.
Please send me everything you have. I want it all. Haha. Send me all the sheets you may have filled out on Adams and info source. I will do the same if you want.
Sister Janette is pulling it together as to what you sent. But needs source.
Also, do you go on the Internet on any programs? Like Ancestry.com, etc? I have the high speed for the very reason to sign up for one of them. But I don't know which is the best. Have you had any luck getting info from one of them?
Will close for now.

> WOW! How interesting. According to BAKER oral family history of the ADAMS, Mary Ann's (b. 1845-1847, KY) maiden name was SCARBER/SCARBORO/et al. not ALSUP! The ONLY marriage record that I have found for Mary Ann was on her marriage to Wm McQUERRY. Simpson ADAMS' wife Elizabeth CASH swore that she was never divorced from Simpson (military papers). She produced several people who knew of their marriage and they provided depositions that they were married and never divorced. She even produce a marriage record. Mary Ann could not produce a marriage record to Simpson ADAMS and kept changing the date and place. Thus the government said that she was not the legal widow of Simpson and refused benefits to her and her children under 18 years of age. Mary Ann tried to get a widow pension after Simpson's wife, Elizabeth died, but was refused because she was never the legal widow of Simpson.
> I do not know anything about John Archibald ALSUP. Never have found anything to indicate that Mary Ann was ever an ALSUP except for the military papers. From everything else that I have found, it indicates that Mary Ann was the daughter of Jacob and Mary Catherine BROCK SCARBOROUGH. It is possible that Mary Ann was born ALSUP and her guardians were the SCARBOROUGHS, but I have not found any paper trail to verify that. There were people by the name of LAMB buried at Springtown Cemetery, Garrard Co., KY. Elizabeth ADAMS md Wm BRYANT, was one of Mason's sisters. Elizabeth had a child who married a LAMB and resided in northern Indiana.
> Mary Ann and Simpson ADAMS had a son named Simpson Taylor/Tyler ADAMS. He died in 1919 and could have had children the ages that you listed as Taylor Simpson and Lisa Lamb's children. WOW, how confusing. Looks like we have more research to do!

"Catherine" SCARBOROUGH married James BAKER; she was the daughter of Jacob and Mary Catherine BROCK SCARBOROUGH and sister of Mary Ann SCARBOROUGH.

We were in the Phoenix area few years ago visiting my aunt who lived there during the winter. Know exactly what you mean about Wanda PATE! My husband's mother (88 years) could well be one of Wanda's aunts; sounds just like her. It is soooo great to finally be in contact with you. One year, I even sent post cards to every Paula Francis who was listed on the Internet.

You appear to be very talented, and I imagine that your little dog is a real sweety. We have a black short hair alley cat that is about 8 years old and a parrot who is about 23 years old. They travel with us.

We have two biological children and one adopted son who was killed in an accident in 1987. Our son, Gary now lives in Seymour and has a 13-year-old daughter and a 7-month-old son who was the third generation to be born on the 19th (March). My husband was born on 19 May 1939; I was born on 19 October, and Gary was born on 19 December in different years, of course. Our daughter was born on the 20th and missed the 19th by about an hour. Julia resided in CA for about 16 years and returned to Indiana in the fall of 2001; married December 2002 and lives about 2 miles from us on a farm. We are excited because our daughter just told us that we are going to be blessed with our third biological grandchild in July 2004. She has two sweet step-daughters, 10 years and 3 years.

Better give you a break and continue at another time. Would love to hear more about you.

The 1850 and 1880 censuses of Bullitt, Hardin, and Meade Counties were searched for information relating to the interred. The census information has been included in this book. Some may have been overlooked so do not assume that they were not listed in the census because their census information does not appear here. The reader will discover that some information is duplicated. In some instances this was intentional and in other instances this was discovered after the book was indexed and is attributable to memory limitations of the author. The code used for the census information is as follows: The first character, a number, indicates the nineteenth century decade (5 is for 1850 and 8 is for 1880). The second character, a letter, is the first letter of the county involved ("B" is for Bullitt, "H" is for Hardin, and "M" is for Meade). The next three characters represent the page number of the census. An "R" following the numbers indicates the reverse side of a page. Example: 5H342R indicates page 342R of the 1850 census for Hardin County. A census code enclosed by brackets indicates census information that is found elsewhere in this book. It can be readily located by use of the index. The page number is the stamped number in the upper right corner of the census page. The "R" pages are not stamped. Some libraries and universities have copies of the census on microfilm. Photo-copies of pages of the census are available from the National Archives in Washington, D. C. for a nominal fee. In the 1850 census a household can usually be assumed to be a family but there are exceptions. In most cases the obvious assumptions are correct, however the author attempted to list those on the 1850 census as household members only. Assumptions and conclusions are left to the reader. This situation was clarified somewhat in the 1880 census by the addition of a column to indicate the relationship of household members to the head of the household.

Occupations are listed only when they were other than farmer or laborer. Birthplaces were generally omitted from this work when they were listed as "Kentucky".

The 1850 census for Bullitt County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 193, Hardin County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 203, and Meade County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 213. The 1880 census for Bullitt County is on two rolls. Page numbers 240R and smaller are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 405 and page numbers 241 and subsequent are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 406. The 1880 census for Hardin County is also on two rolls. Page numbers 400R and smaller are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 417 and page numbers 401 and subsequent are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 418. The 1880 census for Meade County is on Micro Publication T9, Roll 433.

Another research source was the series of newspaper articles in the Westpoint Beacon in 1903 by Dr. T. B. Greenley entitled "Westpoint, Old and New". He was eighty-five years of age when he wrote the articles and he wrote from personal knowledge. 5H342R: Thomas B. Greenley 32, was a physician who was born in Maryland. His household was listed as: Ann E. 27, Thomas C. 6, James C. 3, Corinna W. 1, and John M. 23, a physician who was also born in Maryland. In one of his articles, Dr. Greenley stated that he came to Westpoint in 1844 and studied medicine under Dr. John Lloyd.

There are other valuable sources for historical and genealogical research in the Fort Knox area. One of these is "Kentucky Genealogy and Biography, Volume 1". It includes biographical sketches from Hancock, La Rue, Hardin, Edmonson, Hart, Breckinridge, Grayson, and Meade Counties. Reprinted from "Kentucky, a History of the State" which was written by Battle,

The 1880 census for Hardin County is also on two rolls. Page numbers 400R and smaller are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 417 and page numbers 401 and subsequent are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 418. The 1880 census for Meade County is on Micro Publication T9, Roll 433.

Another research source was the series of newspaper articles in the Westpoint Beacon in 1903 by Dr. T. B. Greenley entitled "Westpoint, Old and New". He was eighty-five years of age when he wrote the articles and he wrote from personal knowledge. 5H342R: Thomas B. Greenley 32, was a physician who was born in Maryland. His household was listed as: Ann E. 27, Thomas C. 6, James C. 3, Corinna W. 1, and John M. 23, a physician who was also born in Maryland. In one of his articles, Dr. Greenley stated that he came to Westpoint in 1844 and studied medicine under Dr. John Lloyd.

There are other valuable sources for historical and genealogical research in the Fort Knox area. One of these is "Kentucky Genealogy and Biography, Volume 1". It includes biographical sketches from Hancock, La Rue, Hardin, Edmonson, Hart, Breckinridge, Grayson, and Meade Counties. Reprinted from "Kentucky, a History of the State" which was written by Battle,

The 1850 and 1880 censuses of Bullitt, Hardin, and Meade Counties were searched for information relating to the interred. The census information has been included in this book. Some may have been overlooked so do not assume that they were not listed in the census because their census information does not appear here. The reader will discover that some information is duplicated. In some instances this was intentional and in other instances this was discovered after the book was indexed and is attributable to memory limitations of the author. The code used for the census information is as follows: The first character, a number, indicates the nineteenth century decade (5 is for 1850 and 8 is for 1880). The second character, a letter, is the first letter of the county involved ("B" is for Bullitt, "H" is for Hardin, and "M" is for Meade). The next three characters represent the page number of the census. An "R" following the numbers indicates the reverse side of a page. Example: 5H342R indicates page 342R of the 1850 census for Hardin County. A census code enclosed by brackets indicates census information that is found elsewhere in this book. It can be readily located by use of the index. The page number is the stamped number in the upper right corner of the census page. The "R" pages are not stamped. Some libraries and universities have copies of the census on microfilm. Photo-copies of pages of the census are available from the National Archives in Washington, D. C. for a nominal fee. In the 1850 census a household can usually be assumed to be a family but there are exceptions. In most cases the obvious assumptions are correct, however the author attempted to list those on the 1850 census as household members only. Assumptions and conclusions are left to the reader. This situation was clarified somewhat in the 1880 census by the addition of a column to indicate the relationship of household members to the head of the household.

Occupations are listed only when they were other than farmer or laborer. Birthplaces were generally omitted from this work when they were listed as "Kentucky".

The 1850 census for Bullitt County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 193, Hardin County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 203, and Meade County is on Micro Publication M432, Roll 213. The 1880 census for Bullitt County is on two rolls. Page numbers 240R and smaller are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 405 and page numbers 241 and subsequent are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 406. The 1880 census for Hardin County is also on two rolls. Page numbers 400R and smaller are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 417 and page numbers 401 and subsequent are on Micro Publication T9, Roll 418. The 1880 census for Meade County is on Micro Publication T9, Roll 433.

Gerald (Pete) Fentress Peach III lives in Dallas and his brother David lives in Houston. They descend from Alva McQueary. I think your William, Jr was a marrying preacher that married my grandfather, Jesse and his wife, Bertha. I never could find their marriage license.

The name Ingram is derived from the personal name Ingelram, later Ingerram, and Latinized as Ingelramus. Umfridus de Kilpatrick had a grant of the lands of Colquhoun in Dumbartonshire about 1241. His son was styled Ingelram de Colquhoun and was the ancestor of the Chiefs of Clan Colquhoun and their descendants. Engelram (Engellram, Ingelleran, Hingelram, Engeram) was rector of Peebles, archdeacon of Glasgow; he became chancellor of Scotland in the reign of Malcolm IV. John Ingeram held a land of the abbott of Arbroath in 1330. Sir William Ingelram was Chaplin of Stirling in 1476, and a William Ingrim in Tullobeg is mentioned in 1716. As a forename it appears as Imgrie in 1580, Engram in 1249, and Ingrm in 1541. (From Black's Surnames Of Scotland). The Ingrams are a sept of clan Colquhoun so they do not have there own tartan.
Clan Colquhoun are descendants of Ingram of Colquhoun which is on the western shore of Loch Lomond in Scotland. Most Ingrams in Scotland come from the Aberdeen area (the north east)although my own branch have been in the Glasgow area for over two hundred years.
